From the Editor

The July feature event for the Waikato Outdoor Society was hosting the NZNF executive group for the weekend of their July meeting in the WOS club rooms.

We gained much from the opportunity to spend quality time with our national representatives outside of their meeting hours and thoroughly enjoyed their convivial company whilst socializing with them and discussing aspects and queries of interest concerning naturism in New Zealand.

Our only regret is to our WOS members who missed out on this pleasurable weekend merging of national and local naturist members with everyone in easy mode enjoying our facilities and relaxing in the WOS environment that prevails here.

National President Wendy made a point of thanking the WOS team, particularly head chef and organizers Peggy and Gail for providing such great meals and hospitality during this successful and rewarding shared weekend at WOS.

NZNF executive meeting at WOS 6th -7th July 2019

The NZNF executive team took time out from their meeting to mix and mingle with the appreciative WOS crew who made the most of the opportunity to keep up with the news and trends on the national front from the friendly visitors whilst enjoying social and meal times together.

A fantastic and very worthwhile and rewarding weekend resulted from this meeting and get together weekend at WOS.

Nudvan spends the weekend @ WOS

The Nudvan group brought their Mid Winter Christmas celebrations to our complex on 20th-21st July which naturally evolved into a great social event for one and all as they interacted with the welcoming WOS members. The entertainment card included quite a few bouts of warming sunshine sometimes ko'd by cloud from the blue corner ending some rounds, however the renown WOS fireplace ranked high and all the ringside seats were often filled over the weekend programme organised by the Nudvan promoters. The Indoor Bowls proved to be one of the feature events and many exciting rounds were contested with interludes of dubious and ribald advice emanating from the spectators as the fun attitude prevailed - although I did spot one fella on the ropes nursing his kitty after his end got shattered when a driving shot hit his bowls putting him out of his comfort zone. The grand finale for the winners spoils had fighters with knees on the mat at times but the winners who rose to the occasion with top scores were widely applauded for their skill in knocking out the younger contenders.

The array of Nudvan fun orientated events over the weekend included 8 ball, darts, card games, spectator knitting and three down, although the thought of a mid winter pool plunge created no ripples of enthusiasm the hot tub was fully patronised as was the determination not to miss the daily happy hour or the many popular interludes for meal breaks and social happenings that add to the enjoyment of a shared weekend with friends

We were well into the Saturday night Christmas feast and festivities when we were all totally surprised when a jolly HO HO HO heralded the arrival of a red dressed white bearded fella bearing a ruddy great sack full of gifts. Jolly old Santa proceeded to dish out Christmas presents and good cheer for us all as we eagerly tore the wrappings from our amazing array of innovative and or educational gifts that added merriment to our festive function. After declining our invitation to stay and join us naturists Santa quickly departed muttering something about our chimney would be too hot without his fireproof suit.

The combined efforts and contributions from both the Nudvan and WOS people produced an appetising and appreciated array of meals throughout the entire weekend that were absolutely top notch and worthy of any Christmas festive season one could wish for. Many of the dishes were quite outstanding with everyone impressed with the presentation, quality and bountiful quantity of the meals.

The only regret was that the Nudvan mid winter Christmas at WOS lasted only the weekend!!

The nice tidy and presentable grounds and kitchen and ablution areas you see here are kept to a standard entirely by volunteer members. You are expected to adhere to the traditional camping laws of cleaning up after yourselves and taking your rubbish with you. Don't tag yourself as the type that expects others to clean up your mess.

BIG thank you goes out to John B for for installing all the electrical equipment for the new pool shed.

Irish luck

Paddy was leaning on the bar enjoying a pint when somebody yelled, “Hey Paddy, there's a bloke stealing your car!!”

Paddy dashed from the pub but came back five minutes later all puffed out. “Did you get him?” pressed his mates.

“No I got close,” puffed Paddy. “But it’s okay, cause I got his rego number”
