UPCOMING EVENTS

August 21st at 10am: Winter Sports

September 18th: Massage day

October is nude gardening day) more details
November 20th Challenge day) to follow

EDITORS NOTES:

Oh my gosh temperature fell to minus 4 during the last month, plenty of rain and wind but still a few hearty souls frequenting the club enjoying each other's company. I asked around for ideas on what the editorial should be this month as winter months don't have the normal activity to generate an article on our chosen pastime. One subject did provoke some discussion pro and against and that was should we be jabbed or not. It is clearly a personal decision and we all have an opinion but for me it is a no brainer just watching the suffering in the world at present. The restriction on freedom and the clear lack of leadership from foreign leaders whether they be right or wrong. Whatever your decision is, remember that your family will remember it in years to come. Reminds me of the child whose father said to his son "Be careful where you walk" and the son replied "You be careful where you walk because I follow in your footsteps"

Polar Plunge: 17 July

With ladybug season over it was time to focus on winter and our annual polar plunge. The day dawned amongst fears that the wind and rain may deter some members, however 6 brave souls did turn up (all Male) and were keen to try out the water. They lined up for the photo shot beforehand (sorry 1 person was missing from this photo, suspect he may have been a bit shy).

We were suitably impressed with the attire this year which may have helped to keep the cold out (yeah right).

And off to the pool they go.

We had no prizes for 1st, but no one was in the pool long enough to decide who was the winner.

It was then off to the hot tub

And soup and buns for lunch.

Many thanks to Trudi, Bill and Bruce for the delicious soups that were served up for lunch, with leftovers for our pot luck dinner.

Peggy's delicious fritters were on the menu as well, and for those who would like to try their hand, here's the recipe:-

FRITTERS - feeds a family of five.

In a bowl, mix:-

5 cups flour

1 tsp salt.

In a saucepan mix:-

$\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$ cup warm water

Add 1 - 2 oz butter

1 dsp sugar

Stir until melted.

Take off heat and add enough milk to cool to blood heat.

Add 15g = 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp dried bread yeast.

Beat with fork and let froth.

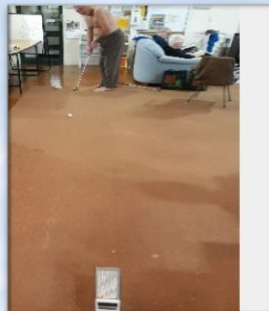

Add to flour mix and knead lightly.

Leave to rise.

Make into scone size and fry in butter.

With the rain and wind continuing on throughout the afternoon, those at WOS were very resourceful and found ways to amuse themselves for the rest of the day.

Cheese grater mini golf, reading beside the fire and Rummikub, being among the chosen favourite past times.

The pot luck dinner was well received by the 30+ diners in the evening, followed by the usual evening time wasters such as watching the All Black/Fiji game, (sorry did I say time waster) friendly chatter by the fire, hot tub and 5 crowns.

Another successful event enjoyed by all at WOS.

Nudvan Mid-Winter Christmas
Friday 9th July - Sunday 11th
July. Friday started with happy hour and a sausage sizzle for tea.

The weather did not play its part and Saturday was very wet, so we resorted to indoor games by the fire allowing everyone to catch up with old friends. We had a great Potluck Christmas Dinner with plenty of food for all to share. Santa made an appearance between tea and desert and there was much excitement as he handed out gifts. The Breakfast BBQ could be smelt from all over the grounds and drew everyone in.

The bacon, eggs, hash brown and sausages were delicious. All too soon the weekend was over and we said our goodbyes until next time.

Polar Plunge July 17th this was the last official swim in the pool before it is out of service for the recoating process. We broke our rules this one time only with a themed dip! The theme was not greatly supported but the cold 12 degrees water did not deter a couple of members doing a repeat dip with a late arrival. The hot tub warmed up the cold bodies and then came a lunch of soup and buns, 3 soups, Veggie by Bill, Pumpkin by Bruce, and Potato & Leak by Trudi. All very tasty.

Stories from the Editor that may be true...

I took my dad to the mall the other day to buy some new shoes (he is 92). We decided to grab a bite at the food court.

I noticed he was watching a teenager sitting next to him. The teenager had spiked hair in all different colours, green, red, Orange and blue.

My Dad kept staring at him.

The teenager would look and find him staring every time.

When the teenager had enough, he sarcastically asked,

"What's the matter old man? Never done anything wild in your life".

Knowing my Dad, I quickly swallowed my food so that I would not choke on his response, knowing he would have a good one. And in classic style he did not bat an eye in his response.

"Got drunk once and had sex with a peacock. I was just wondering if you were my son".

An 85 year old man was requested by his Doctor for a sperm count as part of his prostrate examination.

The Dr gave the man a jar and said, "Take this jar home and bring back a semen sample tomorrow".

The next day the 85 year old man reappeared at the Doctor's office and gave him the jar, which was as clean and empty as on the previous day.

The Doctor asked what happened, and the man explained.

"Well Doc, its like this - first I tried with my right hand, but nothing.

Then I tried with my left hand, but still nothing.

Then I asked my wife for help. She tried with her right hand, then with her left, still nothing.

She tried with her mouth, first with her teeth in, then with her teeth out, still noting.

We even called up Arleen, the lady next door and she tried too, first with both hands, then an armpit and she even tried squeezing it between her knees, but still nothing".

The Doctor was shocked!

"You asked your neighbour"?

The old man replied, yep, none of us could get the jar open".
