- Dec 31st New Year's Eve 'Do' See flier below
- Feb 5 - 9th WOS Mini Rally

From the Editor: Its Christmas time folks and another year almost ready to be part of history. A good time to reflect on the year just passed and to look forward to whatever the New Year brings.

We at WOS are looking forward to an exciting summer of sun, fun and relaxation, not to mention our mini rally which is always a great weekend, with a chance to catch up once again with old friends and acquaintances.

We hope you will join us on Christmas day for some Christmas cheer, and some great food, and also our New Year's Eve party which promises to be another action packed night to see in the New Year.

May we wish you a Happy Christmas and a prosperous new year, and trust 2025 will be a good year for you.

November 2024 - Titbits

The lawns have been sprayed for prickly weed so we can all ground ourselves well in bare feet this summer

BBQ area designs are coming in- post your ideas in the suggestions box in the clubhouse or email Robyn if you want to contribute.

Plans for upgrading the floor and shower heads are continuing- watch this space!

Rae and Ken will be our reps at the NZNF AGM at Pineglades at the end of December.

Frank is busy keeping WOS possum free!

Bits and pieces have been repaired and replaced to keep WOS running smoothly- your committee is on the job- no slackers here!

Larger Expenses:

Power/Gas	$685.62
Sprayer parts	$175.00

Bay of Plenty Naturists Group held their fun and games weekend at WOS on 29 November to 1st December.

Friday night started off with happy hour, lots of chatter, and a game of 5 crowns to finish off the evening. It was a good chance to catch up with old friends, and plan the strategy for the weekend.

The weather didn't dampen the spirits of the small but enthusiastic group of people. A wet Saturday saw indoor games of bowls, pool and 3 down, with the weather clearing a little for some outside ladder golf in the afternoon.

A delicious pot luck dinner on Saturday evening also providing a relaxing atmosphere. With a spectacular quiz held on Saturday night by Quizmaster Robyn, providing lots of entertainment, the evening finishing off with 5 crowns and rummicub.

Sunday morning our thanks go to Robyn and Kelvin who did a wonderful job of overseeing the breakfast and also ensuring that the entire weekend was a success.

This was one of those times where everyone was a winner, as the chocolate bars were handed out.

We were sorry Glenne and Col weren't able to attend, and we do wish Glenne well for her recovery.

Thank you BOP for another entertaining weekend. Some photos of the event.....

The [Politically Correct] night before Xmas.

uploaded from the internet and adapted.

T'was the night before Xmas and Santa's a wreck...
How to live in a world that's politically correct?
His workers no longer would answer to "Elves" - 'Vertically challenged' they were calling themselves.
Labour conditions at the North Pole were alleged by the Union to stifle the soul.
Four reindeer had vanished, without much propriety...released to the wilds by the Humane Society.
Equal employment made it quite clear- that Santa had better not use just reindeer.
As for the gifts, why, he'd never had a notion that making a choice could cause such a commotion.
Nothing of leather, nothing of fur, which meant nothing from him and nothing for her.
No candy or sweets, they were bad for the teeth.
Fairy tales while not yet forbidden- were like Ken & Barbie, better off hidden.
So Santa just stood there. Dishevelled, perplexed. He just could not figure out what to do next.
He tried to be merry - tried to be gay [you've got to be careful with that word today].
His sack was quite empty, limp to the ground. Nothing fully acceptable was to be found.
Something special was needed. A gift that he might give all -without angering the left or the right.
A gift that would satisfy, with no indecision, each group of people, every religion, every ethnicity, every hue, every one, everywhere, even YOU.
So here is that gift, it's a price beyond worth-
'May you and your loved ones enjoy peace on earth.'

Why did Santa's helper see the Doctor?

Because he had a low "elf" esteem!
