EDITORS NOTES: Once upon a time there was ....., how many times have we heard that phrase at the start of stories when we were young, well here comes another one. Once upon a time many years ago there were a group of people enthused by the naturist life. Around the fire with no doubt an alcoholic beverage in one hand and a dream in the other hand, the seed was sowed. This group over the years endured tragedy with the fire that destroyed their clubhouse to financial pressure when moving to the current site. Support from members both financially and manually ensured the new club was born. Various committees have instigated and acted on improving the club for the benefit of members who are of all ages. We are very fortunate to have the best of facilities, assets and fantastic members in our club and although our interest is mainly in the summer months there are 12 months in the year. Herein lies my punchline the social covenor is organising monthly events over this winter and it would be great if members were available to participate in supporting these. We being the editors have redesigned the front page to showcase our upcoming events and to make it easier for you to diarise so you don't forget .

In saying that a great turnout for the mid winter dinner, 34% of our current members attended for a fantastic dinner and great company which made for a great night. Many thanks to Kelvin and Robyn who cooked an excellent meal for us to enjoy..

By the way the Blues won the trans tasman super rugby title, just saying in case you missed it. Go the Blues.

Titbits from June Committee Meeting

- Hedges inside the compound and driveway to be cut this week [weather dependant]. There will be an email sent out for folk to help rake out clipping from under the hedge when applicable.
- 2 memberships approved. Welcome back Jose & Rolf.
- Trailer has been given a new warrant.
- Peggy weeded around the replacement hedging. Looks good too.
- Annual site holders' application and agreements ratified. Letters to follow.
- Thanks to Paul & Trudi for donating a BBQ. Old one sold on Trade me by Kevin.
- Washing machine charge up to $4.
- Split solar panel joiner fixed by Keith.
- Power issues with original site power posts. John B to rewire/fix in the dry weather.
- No committee meeting in July.

Don't worry folks, the new swimming pool will be open whilst ours is closed for repairs.

Column Number 13.

WOS Mid-Winter Dinner Saturday 19th 43 members and guests enjoyed our Mid-Winter

Dinner. The Committee would like to extend a massive thank you to our chef's Kelvin & Robyn. We had a wonderful Winter Roast Meal. There was food for miles, a real grand feast. Thanks also to a few helpers with the prep work and the servers. There were heaps left over for seconds, but if you knew there was Apple pie and Ice-cream for dessert you may have given that a miss. There was so much food we finished off the leftovers for lunch the next day.

Ron gave us an informative talk about Matariki (the star constellation) and how it is known by many different names around the world. For us it can be seen early in the morning just before sunrise. Just look towards the east before dawns first light, it is the pretty little blue cluster of stars just above the horizon.

Stories from the Editor that may be true...

Two little old ladies were sitting on a park bench outside the local town hall where a flower show was in progress.

The thin one leaned over and said, 'Life is so boring. We never have any fun anymore.

For $10 I'd take my clothes off and streak through that stupid flower show!'

'You're on!' said the other old lady, holding up a $10 bill.

The first little old lady slowly fumbled her way out of her clothes and, completely naked, streaked (as fast as an old lady can) through the front door of the flower show.

Waiting outside, her friend soon heard a huge commotion inside the hall, followed by loud applause and shrill whistling.

Finally, the smiling and naked old lady came through the exit door surrounded by a cheering crowd.

'What happened?' asked her waiting friend.

'I won 1st prize as 'Best Dried Arrangement'.

Two women were playing golf. One teed off and watched in horror as her ball headed directly toward a foursome of men playing the next hole.

The ball hit one of the men. He immediately clasped his hands together at his groin, fell to the ground and proceeded to roll around in agony. The woman rushed down to the man, and immediately began to apologize. 'Please allow me to help. I'm a Physiotherapist and I know I could relieve your pain if you'd allow me, she told him.

'Oh, no, I'll be all right. I'll be fine in a few minutes,' the man replied. He was in obvious agony, lying in the foetal position, still clasping his hands there at his groin. At her persistence, however, he finally allowed her to help. She gently took his hands away and laid them to the side, loosened his pants and put her hands inside. She administered tender and artful massage for several long moments and asked, 'How does that feel?'

Feels great, he replied; but I still think my thumb's broken!
